

The Royal College of
Emergency Medicine

Emergency Medicine Careers Day

19 May 2017 | 09:00 – 16:00

Senate House, University of London, Malet St, London WC1E 7HU

Cost: £15.00
(lunch will be provided)

Incorporated by Royal Charter, 2008
Registered Charity number: 1122689

VAT Reg. No: 173205823
Registered Charity number in Scotland: SC044373

#RCMEevents

The Royal College of
Emergency Medicine

Emergency Medicine Careers Day 2017

This is an essential day for medical students, foundation doctors and anyone else considering a career in emergency medicine. With a packed day of sessions and practical workshops we hope to answer all your questions. If we don't, you can always ask the panel of experts! Sessions and workshops will be delivered by both EM consultants and trainees, they include:

- Why Choose Emergency Medicine?
- A Day in the Life of an Emergency Physician
- EM Training and Portfolios
- Alternative routes into EM Training
- Work / Life Balance and Emergency Medicine
- Emergency Medicine and the Future
- Paediatric EM
- Intensive Care
- Pre-Hospital EM

Place are limited at this event, so book your spot now.

Visit www.rcem.ac.uk/events for more details and how to book.

Do you have an interesting case?

We would like to hear from you. In the afternoon, there will be an opportunity for you to educate and inspire us with a 5 - 10 minutes' case presentation. There is a £50 prize for the winner.

For more information, email: careers@rcem.ac.uk